First Job Fair Set for January 24

AUSTELL, Ga. — January 9, 2015 — In preparation for the upcoming 2015 season, Six Flags Over Georgia is now beginning to hire 3,000 season employees. The park is gearing up for another exciting year with the addition of two new devious rides: THE JOKER Chaos Coaster and Harley Quinn Spinsanity. Both new attractions will debut in Gotham City later this Spring and the park will be releasing additional announcements regarding the new season in the coming weeks.

Six Flags Over Georgia will host its first seasonal job fair on Saturday, January 24. Positions available for the 2015 season include:

- Food Service
- Park Services
- Guest Relations
- Admissions
- Retail
- Ride Operations
- Games
- Security Officers
- Cash Control
- Marketing Researchers

All applicants must be at least 15 years of age and apply online first at www.sixflagsjobs.com by January 16. Qualified individuals will be contacted for an off-site interview and the location of the job fair will be provided. No walk-up interviews will be available.
